

Selection Comprehension

► Choose the best answer for each question.

1. How can readers tell that "Ramona Quimby, Age 8" is realistic fiction?

- A It explains how a place came to be.
- B It has animals that act like people.
- C It has events that could never happen in real life.
- D It has characters with feelings that real people have.

Answers

1. _____

2. _____

2. What is Ramona's problem in the story?

- A She left the book for her report at school.
- B She cannot get anyone to read her book report.
- C She wants to give a book report that is special.
- D She wants to give a report on a different book.

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

3. At first, why does Ramona have trouble thinking of a way to sell her book to anyone?

- A She has not read the whole book yet.
- B She thinks the book is too hard to read.
- C She does not really like the book herself.
- D She does not understand the book ending.

6. _____

7. _____

8. _____

4. Where does Ramona get the idea for her report?

- A from watching television
- B from her friends, Sara and Janet
- C from something Danny said to her
- D from listening to other classmates

Please only email this page with the answers

Name _____

5. What is the MAIN reason Ramona raises her hand to give her report before lunch?
- A She feels proud of her report idea.
 - B She wants to get the report over with.
 - C She wants Mrs. Whaley to like her.
 - D She will get a better grade for speaking early.
6. When compared with the reports her classmates gave, Ramona's report
- A lasts much longer.
 - B is more unusual.
 - C is just the same.
 - D has more facts.
7. Why do Ramona's face and ears turn red at the end of her report?
- A She feels angry.
 - B She has a high fever.
 - C She feels embarrassed.
 - D She is getting sick again.
8. What can readers tell about Ramona?
- A She has given many reports.
 - B She has a good imagination.
 - C She reads books only about cats.
 - D She never worries about anything.