Chapter 1

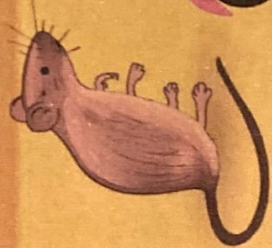

Keith and his parents are on the road trip from Ohio to San Francisco. On their way, they stopped at the Mountain View Inn in California for a rest.

Keith takes his toys out: sedan, sports car, ambulance, and a red motorcycle. He ate his apple and played with his toys.

Mrs. Gridley did not like this hotel. She thought it was very old and filled with mice.

Mr. and Mrs. Gridley walk into Keith's room. Mrs. Gridley saw Keith's apple core and threw it into the metal wastebasket.

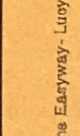

Keith began exploring his room 215. He walked around and found a small hole in the wall, but didn't find anything inside.

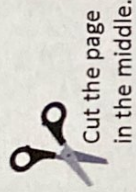

Chapter 2

1. Ralph climbs the telephone cord and reaches the motorcycle. He checks out the motorcycle and is super excited about it. He hopes it drives.
2. Ralph's mother worried a lot. She worried that their old hotel would be torn town. She worried about her family finding an aspirin tablet (which killed Ralph's father).
3. Ralph's mother worried mostly about Ralph because he was a curious and a reckless mouse.
4. Ralph, the mouse living in room 215, was happy to see someone moving in to his room. He was hoping he'll have plenty of left-over food to eat.
5. Ralph 'rides' the motorcycle on top of the table. When the phone rings, he gets scared, forgets to turn, and falls into a wastebasket.
